

A SOCIAL NARRATIVE

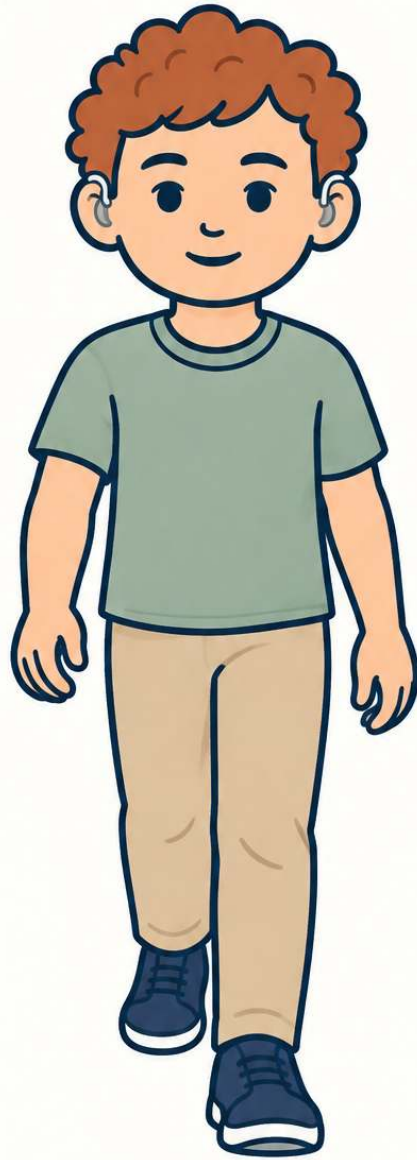

SCHOOL DAYS SERIES

Dress-Up Day

Sometimes school has a dress-up day, like for Book Week — wearing a costume instead of the usual uniform.

The rest of the school day still happens the same – classroom, recess, lunch.

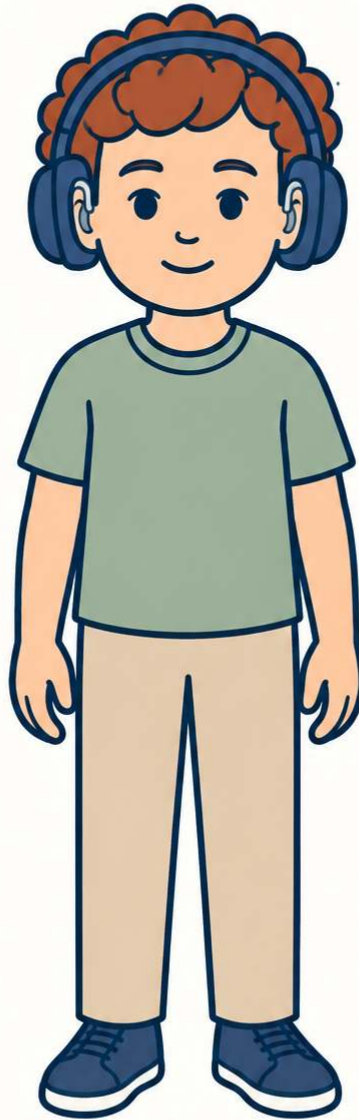

Some kids dress up a lot. Some wear just one small costume piece. Some wear the normal uniform instead – that's okay too.

Rough plan: get dressed at home, go to school, maybe a parade or class activity, then a normal afternoon.

A costume can feel different to normal clothes — a scratchy fabric, a mask, or something extra to carry around.

Sometimes it's hard to know exactly what other kids will wear. That's okay — there's no one right costume.

If the costume feels like too much, Ms Taylor can help, or it can come off for part of the day.

However dress-up day goes, school still feels like school underneath it.

COPYRIGHT

© 2026 PDA Australia. All rights reserved.

SHARING

This story is for use within the family or school that purchased it. Please don't share, resell, or publish it elsewhere — if another school or service would find it useful too, they're welcome to their own copy at pdaaustralia.com.au.

ABOUT PDA AUSTRALIA

We create practical, neuro-affirming resources for autistic and PDA children, their families, and the educators who support them. More free and paid resources at pdaaustralia.com.au.