

A SOCIAL NARRATIVE

MORNINGS SERIES

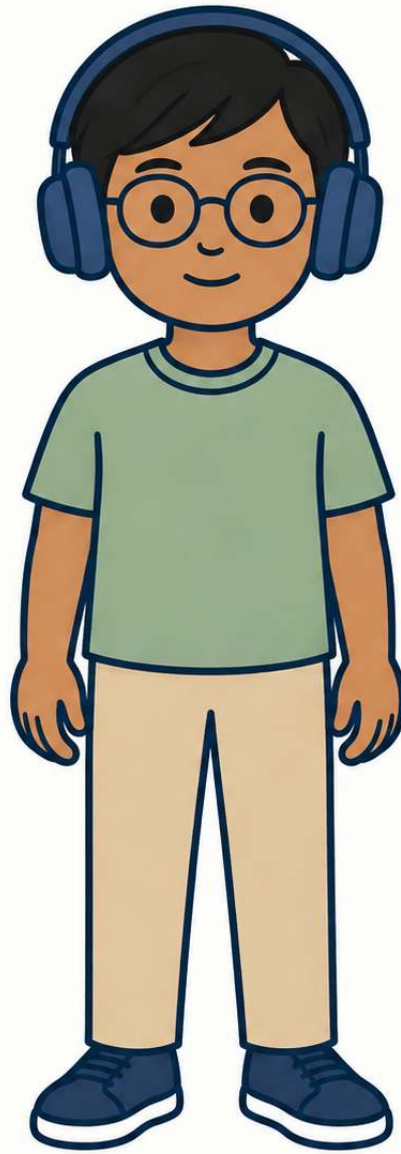

The Trip to School

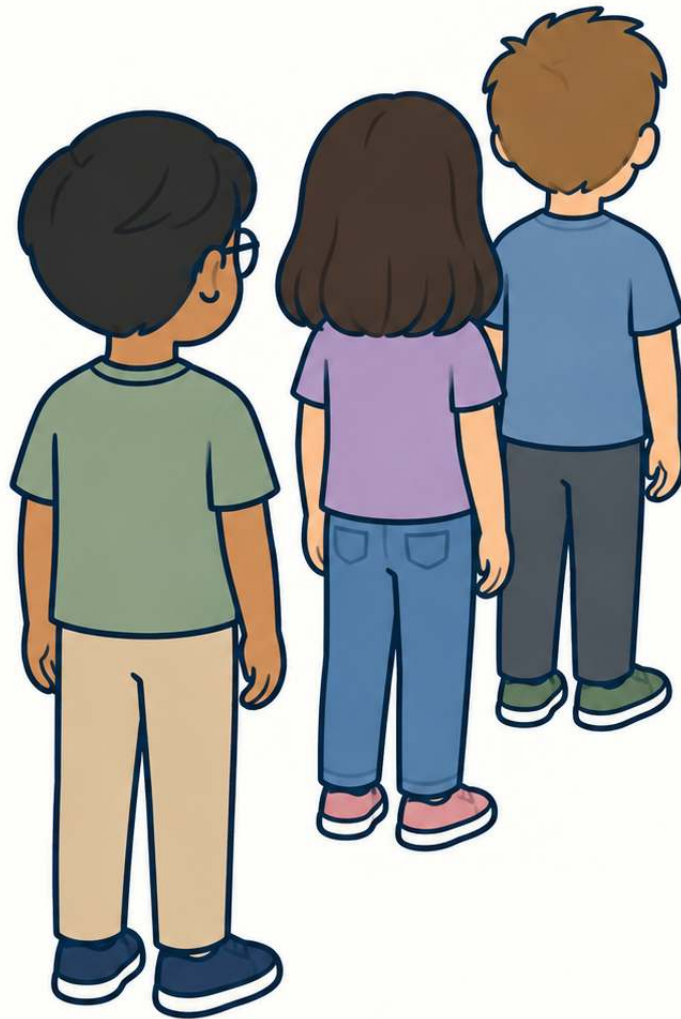

After getting ready, the next part of the morning is the trip to school. Noah goes by bus.

The trip takes about the same time most days.

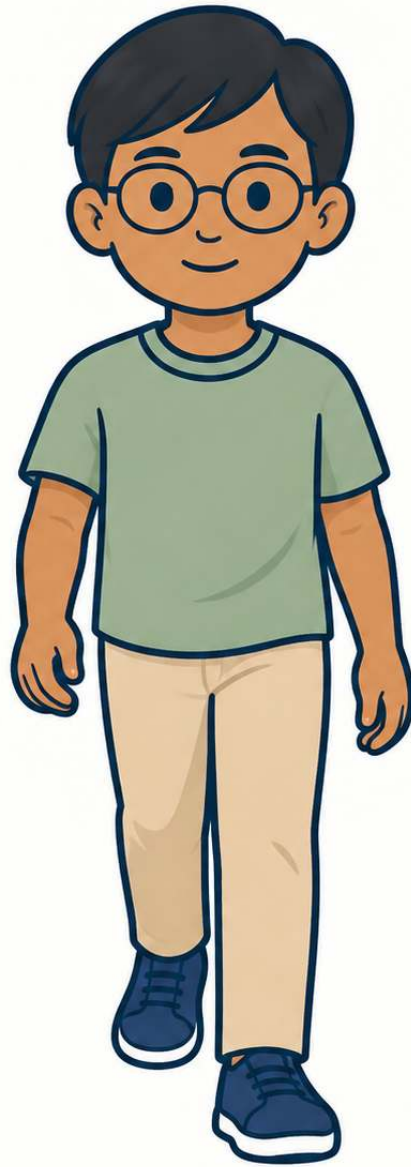

Sometimes the trip is quiet. Sometimes there's noise from other kids. Both are okay.

Getting on the bus means waiting in a line sometimes. That's okay, it doesn't take long.

Sometimes the trip takes a little longer, like if there's traffic. That's okay — it happens sometimes.

When the bus gets close to school, it's nearly time to get off and walk in.

If the trip feels like a lot, Noah can sit near a friend, or ask the bus driver or a teacher for help.

Every trip gets Noah to school. However it goes, that's what matters.
