

A SOCIAL NARRATIVE

SCHOOL DAYS SERIES

Whole-School Assembly

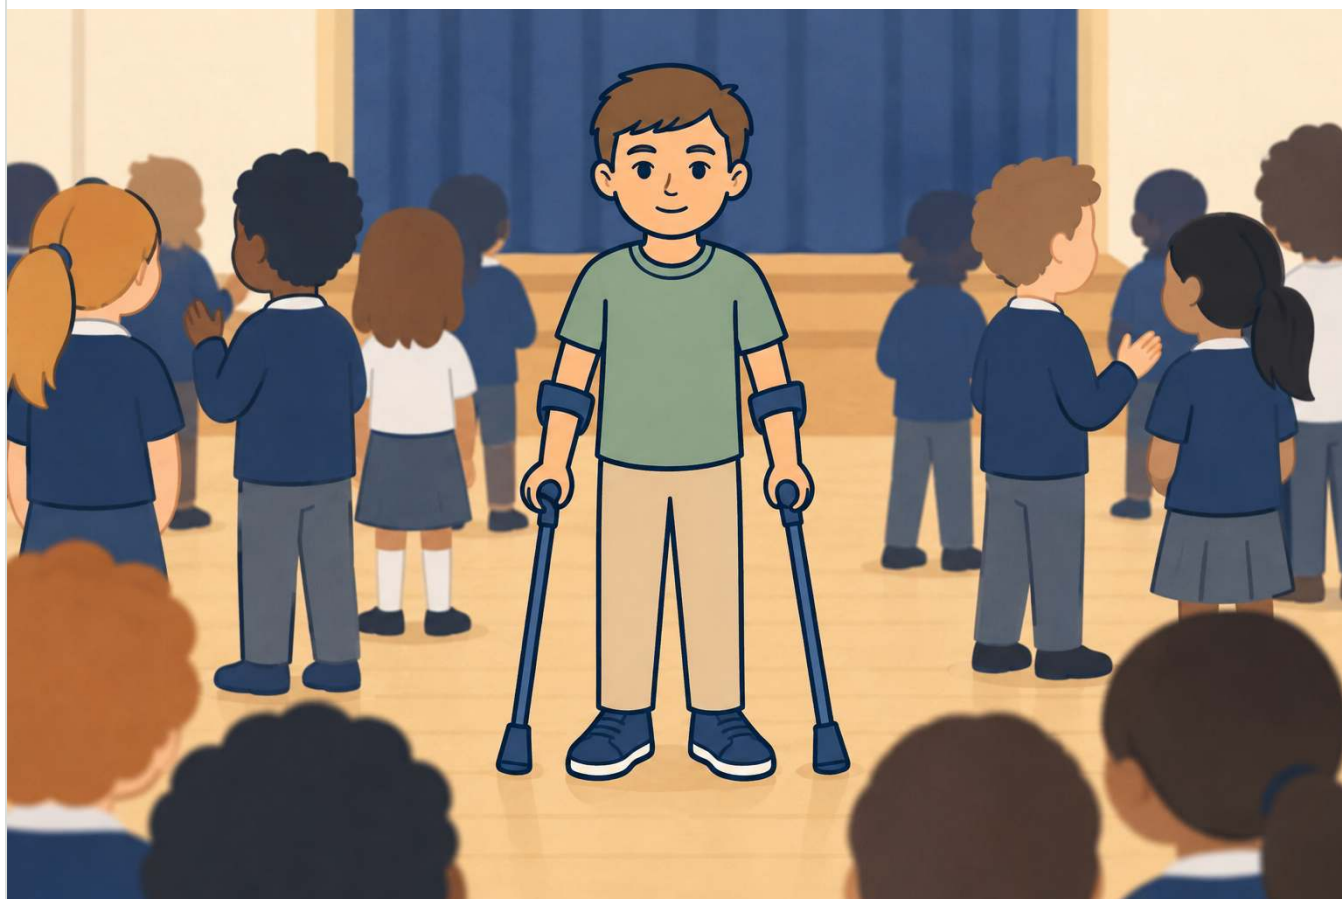

Sometimes the whole school meets together in the hall. This is called an assembly.

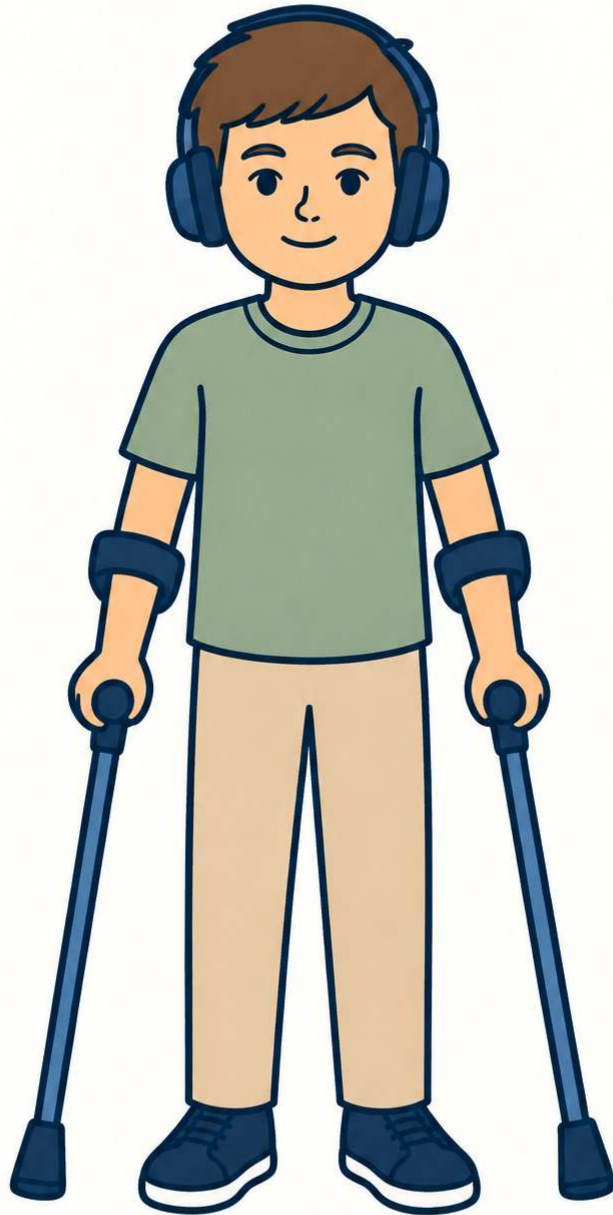

Assemblies happen in the same hall each time, and Ella usually sits nearby.

Assemblies usually have a few parts — announcements, maybe a song, and sometimes an award. The order can change.

The hall can feel loud and crowded with everyone together. If it feels like a lot, headphones or a seat near the edge can help.

Sometimes assembly runs longer or shorter than expected. That's okay – it happens sometimes.

Some kids like to sit near the front. Some like to sit near the back or the door. Ethan can sit wherever feels okay.

If it feels too hard, Ethan can ask Ms Taylor to step outside for a minute. That's okay to do.

Assembly finishes and the day goes back to normal after that.
